

2021 Missions Gifts Remittance Form

Instructions: Please enter the amount of your Cooperative Program gift for this remittance on the first line below. You may choose to exclude up to three (3) budget items and still have the gift qualify as Cooperative Program support 1. Churches may also choose to designate a portion of this amount for theological education at Campbell and Garner-Webb divinity schools and for Mission: Dignity (formerly Adopt-an-Annuitant) by checking the appropriate box below the Cooperative Program amount 2. All special offerings and non-CP designated missions gifts should be included on the remittance lines below the Cooperative Program gift line. Then please calculate the total amount of your enclosed check and provide the appropriate contact name and number.

¹ Gifts which negatively designate the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina (BSCNC) shall not be considered Cooperative Program gifts. Gifts which negatively designate the Southern Baptist Convention will not be reported to the SBC as qualifying gifts for SBC messenger status, but will qualify the church for BSCNC messenger status.

² These designated funds will not be considered Cooperative Program gifts. Theological education designated funds will be added to the scholarship endowment at the NC Baptist Foundation for Campbell and Gardner-Webb divinity schools. Mission: Dignity designated funds will be sent to the reserve to assist retired NC Baptist pastors and surviving spouses through Guide Stone's Mission: Dignity program.
