BREAKOUT SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

39A Church Fostering

Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon
Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Cedar A, Level 2*

Church fostering is for churches on a severe decline that no longer have essential resources for revitalization, but want to retain church autonomy. Come learn best practices and hear stories of churches involved in church fostering.

Terry Long, Revitalization Strategist, BSCNC
Will Gatling, Pastor of Missions, Bayleaf Baptist Church, Raleigh, N.C.

39B Church Livestreaming Basics and Beyond

Monday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon
Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Cedar B, Level 2*

Your church probably was thrust into livestreaming in 2020. Whether your church just started or wants to get better at digital ministry overall, come gain an understanding of how to effectively use the digital space in your ministry to your church, your community and beyond. This session will cover an introduction to church livestreaming, old and new platforms, how a church can use this tool effectively and what to watch out for, both good and bad.

Travis Currin, Media Technology Associate, Carmel Baptist Church, Matthews, N.C.

39C Creating a Sending Culture Through Apprenticeships and Residencies

Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon
Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Cedar C, Level 2*

Apprenticeships and residencies are the intentional efforts of churches to discover, develop and deploy missional leaders and church planting teams. Learn how the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina can help you to be intentional toward sending and building God's kingdom.

Mike Pittman, Church Planting Strategist, BSCNC

37 Every Child: Connecting Vulnerable Children With Christian Families

Monday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon
Maple, Level 2*

There are 16,000 North Carolina children taken out of their homes every year. The church is the answer to this crisis. "Every Child" is a collaborative initiative of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Join foster care and adoption experts Keith Henry and Kevin Qualls with Baptist Children's Homes as they shine a light on the need in our state.

Learn how your church can develop a foster care and adoption ministry to meet this critical need.

Kevin Qualls, Senior Director of Adoptions, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

Keith Henry, Chief Operating Officer, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

54A Leading Church Revitalization in a Rural Context

Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon
Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Colony A, Level 3

Church revitalization is not just for churches that are about to close their doors, but for any church attempting to evaluate health. Additionally, church revitalization is not just for the urban or suburban church. The majority of revitalizations take place in rural and normative size church contexts. Come hear from pastors who are currently walking through revitalization in these contexts.

Barry Lawrence, Revitalization Coach, BSCNC

Lee Childs, Revitalization Coach, BSCNC

Andrew Renfroe, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Belmont

Jason Ballard, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Stanley

Jason Marlowe, Pastor, Tuckaseege Baptist Church, Mount Holly

38B Go Impact: Youth and the Future of Missions

Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon
Oak B, Level 2*

Youth are our future in missions. The research about Generation Z is both encouraging and challenging as we consider how to engage them in missions. Learn about the International Mission Board's new youth pathway. Discover the barriers you face and the strategies you need to raise up healthy missional students.

George Siler, Volunteer Projects Manager, IMB

39A Make It Matter!

Monday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Cedar A, Level 2*

Intentional discipleship is key to developing children who are "on-mission" as Christ followers. Let's explore how teachers and leaders can move through the stages of teaching, from information to the goals of formation and transformation.

Cheryl Markland, Children & Family Ministries Strategist, BSCNC

37 Helping Children Succeed: Be a Trauma-Informed Church

Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Maple, Level 2*

Trauma, unfortunately, is commonplace in the lives of many children. This session will define trauma and how it affects children and teens. We will explore how to recognize behaviors, understand their meaning and how to best respond to these behaviors. Providing support through relationships is critical to navigating trauma in children, teens and families. Examples and guidance will be shared on how church staff and volunteers can provide this support.

Kay Burriss, East Central Regional Director, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

Regina Keener, West Central Regional Director, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina

43A Meet Your Great Commission Catalysts: Asian Catalyst

Monday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Heritage A, Level 3

At the heart of our statewide strategy to become a movement of churches on mission together is a team of geographically or affinity-based Great Commission Catalysts who stand ready to serve local N.C. Baptist churches, pastors and associational mission strategists. Their first priority is to simply ask the question "How may I serve you?" These men are ready to provide assistance with Great Commission strategy development, missions mobilization, coaching and mentoring, and by offering resources to assist with every area of local church ministry. If you have a challenge in ministry, they will connect you with the people and resources to meet that challenge. Come meet your catalysts in this session.

2 On Mission Together Across our State and Around the World

Monday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon
Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Auditorium I, Level 1

You can glorify God by involving your church in missions. Come learn how your church can be involved in missions across our state, throughout the nation and around the world. This breakout will be led by Baptists on Mission staff and will show you how your church can be involved in missions through the mobile dental and health screening ministries, mission camps, rebuild centers, national and international partnerships, and more.

Baptists on Mission Staff

47 People Risk Management

Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Bear Creek, Level 3

"People risk" is not a subject most employers like to talk about or even think about, regardless of their industry. However, in today's ever-changing world of employer compliance, if you're not planning for it, you're already at risk. In this session you will learn how people risk management simply provides human resources and business leaders with the tools and guidance they need to prepare for and manage day-to-day people risk.

Chad Wilson, Groups Benefits Specialist, Contemporary Benefits Advisors

39C Reaching Internationals Through Church Planting

Monday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Cedar C, Level 2*

The Father is bringing the world to North Carolina. Is engaging with the internationals in your community on your church's radar? In this session, we will explore ways your church can engage your international community through church planting.

Ralph Garay, International Church Planting Strategist, BSCNC

38B Ready to Go: Developing and Sending Missionaries From Your Ministry

Monday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.

Tuesday, 3:30-4:30 p.m.

Oak B, Level 2*

What are you doing to send out “the called?” Do you know what are the opportunities for your people to serve as missionaries with the International Mission Board? Envision year after year of launching members from your ministry to reach lost peoples with the gospel, start churches and serve God in careers and places all over the world. Learn about five components of an intentional developmental approach that you can develop in your church.

George Siler, Volunteer Projects Manager, IMB

44 Using an Awakening Weekend to Bring the Church Together on Mission Again

Tuesday, 11 a.m. to noon

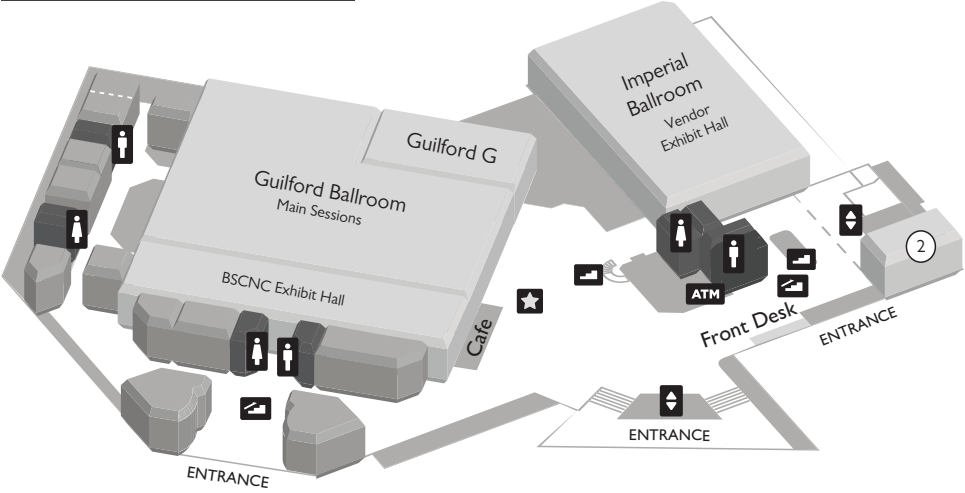

Olympia, Level 3

An “Awakening Weekend” is an opportunity to reawaken the church to its purpose and passion. Come learn about a way to refresh believers with a godly perspective of their role in service to others through a weekend method of becoming a close church family that is focused on missions together.

Bob Foy, Mission Service Corp., Church Renewal Journey
