

Marty Parks is a composer, arranger, orchestrator and producer with over 1,000 original songs and arrangements in print. In addition, he is the author of two devotional books: “Quiet Moments for Worship Leaders” and “In Spirit and In Truth”.

Born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, Marty holds degrees from The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has served churches in Tennessee, Texas and Mississippi, and currently enjoys his role as Worship Pastor for Olde Towne Community Church in Ridgeland, MS. One of his favorite things in the world is participating in various music and worship conferences around the country. “It’s a thrill to do real things with real people for a real God.”

Marty is husband to wife, Vicki, father of 4 children: Brandt, Jarrod, Stanford and Sarah Beth, father-in-law of 2, and grandfather of the most beautiful 1 year old girl on the planet.

You can find out more about him than you'd ever want to know at www.martyparks.com.