WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

F A Q

1. What does my registration include?

Your conference package includes all program fees and materials, Friday night lodging, Friday night dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch. If you choose the commuter option, it includes program fees and materials, Friday night dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch. You must be registered and paid to attend any part of this event. There are no discounts for coming for a portion of the time.

2. What is the registration deadline and costs involved?

Registration rates begin at $155 and depend on lodging choice and availability. The deadline to register is Monday, Oct. 3, 2022. We do not "hold" spots or rooms for the retreat. All reservations must be paid in full at the time of registration. All payments are made by credit card on the website. Please see here for pricing options.

3. What if I register for the conference and cannot attend at the last minute? Will I get a refund?

Your registration fee is transferable but not refundable. Someone can attend in your place and you can work that out with them on a personal basis, but we are unable to provide refunds. Registration is handled in the Ministry Strategies Group Office, so please do not call the Conference Center. For concerns or questions, please contact Austin Pulliam at apulliam@ncbaptist.org.

4. How do I register and will I receive a confirmation of my registration?

Registration for the conference center, Jacumin Lodges and commuters will begin online Wednesday, June 1, 2022. Individuals who register for the conference center, Jacumin Lodges and commuters only will receive a confirmation email with a ticket. Each participant must present a hard copy or digital copy of the ticket for check-in. Registration is only offered online via the website; our office does not register participants over the phone.

5. What is double-room, double occupancy? May I register for this lodging option?

Double-room, double occupancy means two beds are in the room for two ladies. Those who select this option must already have a roommate and also register and pay at the same time. We do not find roommates for participants. Failure to register with a roommate will result in a canceled registration.

6. Can I attend only one of the main speaking sessions?

This conference is offered as a whole event, and we encourage women to come prepared to attend the entire conference.

7. Can I bring my child to the retreat? I'm a brand-new mother, can I bring my baby with me?

The short answer is no. This conference is designed for women to get-away. Please do not bring nursing babies, toddlers or children under the age of 18 to the conference. We are unable to make exceptions and ask that even if you are staying in your own room, you respect this request.

8. What if I have a food allergy?

Unfortunately, we are unable to accommodate specific food requests.

9. What should I bring?

Wear comfortable clothing and shoes! There are some walking trails and a hike is offered Friday evening, so bring appropriate walking shoes, and be in good physical health if you choose to participate. Bring a light jacket in the event of a chilly Friday evening. Feel free to bring any snacks you may want. There will be a flashlight tour on Friday evening, so please bring a flashlight if you wish to participate.

10. Are there any discounts or scholarships offered?

We are unable to offer scholarships through our office, but we encourage those seeking to attend that need financial assistance to contact their group leader or church leadership for assistance.

11. What should I expect as far as accommodations are concerned?

If you choose Jacumin Lodge, you will need to provide your own sleeping bag/bedding for the bunk beds in the lodge and towels for the indoor community bathroom facilities. The conference rooms (single and double rooms) will have bedding and towels provided.

12. Who will be in the room with me?

If you registered for double-room single occupancy, you'll be in the room by yourself. If you registered for double-room double occupancy, you will be put with the roommate you listed. If you choose the Jacumin Lodge, this is a bunk option and you will be roomed with other ladies attending the conference. We are unable to guarantee any special spaces, assign bunks or conference center rooms in close proximity with others from your church. Beds are first come, first serve. We do ask that everyone give special preference for bottom bunks to those who are unable to climb to top bunks.

13. Can I come to Caraway early and stay Thursday night?

We have not secured lodging for our attendees for Thursday night before the conference.
