

MISSIONARY HIGHLIGHT: NOVEMBER 29, 2020

JEREMIAH BRINKMAN

NEW YORK, NY

Today in our prayer time, let's pray for a North American Mission Board missionary who serves in New York City. His name is Jeremiah Brinkman and his ministry is telling new immigrants about Jesus. New York has many immigrants who have come from all over the world. Most of them are walking through similar problems — they usually have little money. Figuring out how to make a living and provide for their families is a daily struggle. They may speak little to no English, making their life even more difficult.

Jeremiah welcomes these immigrants, provides meals and even helps them learn their way around the city. However, his first priority is to befriend the immigrants in New York City. After that, he is able to tell newcomers about the love of Jesus and how they can follow Him.

Jeremiah is helping plant new churches all across the city because thousands of new, Bible-believing churches are needed there. Our church supports Jeremiah and his ministry by giving to the Cooperative Program.

Many immigrants who come to New York City are from countries where churches are forbidden. Now that they can hear the gospel without fear of persecution, it is imperative that the saving message of Jesus Christ is shared with them. Let's pray for Jeremiah as he serves in New York City and tells his new friends about Jesus Christ.
