

MISSIONARY HIGHLIGHT: November 17, 2019

William Smith
Triangle Area, N.C.

Today we're going to pray for someone we'll call William Smith.

Now that's not his real name, but here's why. William and his wife are starting a new church in the Triangle area — that's generally the Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill area.

The people they are reaching out to are Asian Indians — that means the thousands of people who have moved to North Carolina from India. Many of the Asians William talks to are Muslims who know Jesus at best as only a prophet, but not as Savior.

William and his family have moved into an area where there are many Asian Indians and have begun making friends and getting to know them so they can more easily share the gospel.

Our church is supporting William through our Cooperative Program giving. We need many more missionaries like him because there are so many Asian Indians now living in this part of our state and they desperately need to be saved.

Let us pray today that William will have wisdom and understanding, that through him many will come to know Jesus Christ in a personal, saving way.

52 Sundays is produced by the Southern Baptist Stewardship Development Association in partnership with the SBC Executive Committee; International Mission Board, SBC; North American Mission Board, SBC; Woman's Missionary Union, SBC; and the 42 Baptist state conventions.
