

MISSIONARY HIGHLIGHT: December 15, 2019

Zacharie Ngemba
Raleigh, N.C.

People have come to North Carolina from all over the world.

In earlier times we seldom actually saw people from Africa, though we sent missionaries to share the gospel with them.

Now, people from many African countries are living here.

For example, the Democratic Republic of the Congo is a country in the middle of Africa, and there are thousands of Congolese people living in and around Raleigh now.

This is why today we are praying for our missionary church planter Zacharie Ngemba (say GEM-bah). He is a Congolese pastor who is starting a new church for his countrymen in west Raleigh.

Zacharie speaks English and several African languages, but he preaches in French, the main language for the Congo. His daughter translates his messages into English.

Our church is supporting this missionary through our Cooperative Program giving and today we pray that the Lord will bless his ministry and his church as he shares the same gospel we send missionaries to Africa to share!

52 Sundays is produced by the Southern Baptist Stewardship Development Association in partnership with the SBC Executive Committee; International Mission Board, SBC; North American Mission Board, SBC; Woman's Missionary Union, SBC; and the 42 Baptist state conventions.
