

FAQ's

NC Baptist Women's Retreat: ABIDE
October 25-26, 2019

1. What does my registration include?

Your retreat package includes all program fees and materials, Friday night lodging, Friday night dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch. If choosing the commuter option your retreat package includes program fees and materials, Friday night dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch. You must be registered and paid to attend any part of this event. There are no discounts for coming for a portion of the time.

2. What is the registration deadline and costs involved?

The cost of the retreat begins at $85 for commuters for the early bird option, which includes program fees and materials, Friday night dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch. Lodging options for the early bird rate begin at $140, which includes all program fees and materials, Friday night lodging, Friday night dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch. Early bird registration ends Friday, September 6, 2019. Regular registration rates begin at $165 and are as space is available and paid in full by Friday, October 4, 2019. We do not "hold" spots or rooms for the retreat. All registrations must be paid in full at the time of registration. All payments are made by credit card on the website. Please see here for pricing options for registration fees.

3. What if I register for the retreat and cannot attend at the last minute? Will I get a refund?

Your registration fee is transferable for this retreat, but not refundable. Someone can attend in your place and you can work that out with them on a personal basis, but we are unable to provide refunds once you've registered. Registration is handled in the Embrace Ministry Office, so please do not call the Conference Center. For concerns or questions, please call Alexa Mahan at 919.459.5558.

4. How do I register and will I receive a confirmation of my registration?

You can register online beginning May 31, 2019. Yes, you will receive a confirmation email from our office once you register. We do not issue printed tickets for the event. Your confirmation email is the piece of information from our office verifying your registration. Registration is only offered online via the website; our office does not register participants over the phone.

5. What is double-room, double occupancy? May I register for this lodging option?

Double-room, double occupancy means two beds are in the room for two ladies. Those who select this option must already have a roommate, and also register and pay at the same time. We do not find roommates for participants. Failure to register with a roommate will result in a canceled registration.

6. How do I register my group?

The only way to register for the retreat is online beginning May 31, 2019. You can register up to 6 people online at a time. You MUST include a name and email address when registering all people (including groups) online. For anyone registering as a group and serving as the main contact, you are responsible for providing the participants in your group with all the retreat information our office sends to you – including the information in this FAQs.

7. Is this retreat ideal for a women's group from a church?

Yes! We have set aside a special time for church groups to gather during the retreat to discuss the teaching sessions.

8. Can I attend only one of the main speaking sessions?

This retreat is offered as a whole event and we encourage women to come prepared to attend the entire retreat.

9. Are there retreat related items that I can purchase?

Yes! This year we will offer an optional t-shirt and water bottle that can be purchased at the time of registration. The t-shirt will feature the 2019 women's retreat "ABIDE" logo, and the water bottle will feature the Embrace & Women's Evangelism and Discipleship logo. Participants may purchase one or both items, but items must be purchased and paid for at the time of registration. Orders will not be taken after the individual has registered for the retreat.

10. Can I bring my child to the retreat? I'm a brand-new mother, can I bring my baby with me?

The short answer is no. This retreat is designed for women to get-away. Please do not bring nursing babies, toddlers or children under the age of 18 to the retreat. We are unable to make exceptions and ask that even if you are staying in your own room, you respect this request.

11. What if I have a food allergy?

Unfortunately, we are unable to accommodate specific food requests.

12. What should I bring?

Wear comfortable clothing and shoes! There are some walking trails and a night walk is offered Friday evening, so you want to bring appropriate walking shoes as well as be in good physical health if you choose to participate. Bring a light jacket in the event of a chilly Friday evening. Feel free to bring any snacks you may want. Please note that snacks will be prohibited in the auditorium. There will be a flashlight tour on Friday evening so please bring a flashlight if you wish to participate.

We are unable to offer scholarships through our office, but encourage those seeking to attend that need financial assistance to contact their group leader or church leadership for assistance.

15. What should I expect as far as accommodations are concerned?

If you chose Jacumin Lodge, you will need to provide your own sleeping bag/bedding for the bunkbeds in the lodge and towels for the indoor community bathroom facilities. The conference rooms will have bedding and towels provided.

16. Who will be in the room with me?

If you registered for a conference room single occupancy room, you'll be in the room by yourself. If you registered for a conference room double, you will be roomed with the roommate who registers and pays with you. If you choose the Jacumin Lodge, this is a bunk option and you will be roomed with other ladies attending the retreat. We are unable to guarantee any special spaces, assign bunks or conference center rooms in close proximity with others from your church. Beds are first come, first serve. We do ask that everyone give special preference for bottom bunks to those who are unable to climb to top bunks.

17. Can I come to Caraway early and stay Thursday night?

We have not secured lodging for our conference attendees for Thursday night before the retreat.
