JOB POSTING: President, Fruitland Baptist Bible College

Fruitland Baptist Bible College, a ministry of N.C. Baptists, seeks a visionary, Christ-centered leader to serve as its next President. This individual will provide executive leadership and oversee institutional operations. The President will be charged with the responsibility to advance the College's mission to glorify God, serve the local church, and fulfill the Great Commission.

The successful candidate will demonstrate unwavering commitment to the Baptist Faith and Message (BF&M) 2000, affirming the authority, sufficiency, and inerrancy of Scripture. He will exhibit proven spiritual maturity and pastoral character consistent with 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1. The President of FBBC will have a clear record of gospel-centered leadership in ministry.

Key responsibilities include casting a compelling vision for growth, strengthening partnerships with churches, particularly among N.C. Baptists, and ensuring all programs align with core Christian doctrine as outlined in the BF&M 2000. The President will also guide academic development, support faculty and staff, and lead the institution into new opportunities for gospel advancement through ministries and education that serve the local church.

Qualified candidates should possess strong administrative and communication skills, with a terminal degree preferred or equivalent experience. A demonstrated commitment to ministry leadership, disciple-making, and theological clarity is essential.

This role offers a unique opportunity to shape future Christian leaders and expand the reach of FBBC's ministry training.

Resumes will be received by the Presidential Search Committee from May 9 - June 5, 2026. Interested candidates should send a resume and any other relevant information to presidentalsearch@fruitland.edu before the end of the day on June 5, 2026.
