Annual fees provide member benefits from July 1 through June 30 each year. Each program sponsored by the church must apply for membership. Full center memberships and individual memberships are available.

The Purpose of NCBCWEA

- To encourage the spiritual growth of children in conjunction with the physical, emotional, social, and cognitive aspects of development.
- To exchange ideas and methods, and to study trends and developments in the field of childhood education.
- To provide opportunities for networking with and quality staff development for directors, teachers, and other staff who relate to children.
- To encourage quality, developmentally appropriate childcare.
- To encourage the church to reach out to families involved in the CWE ministry.

Benefits of NCBCWEA Membership

- Membership provides opportunities to network with other professionals who serve in the unique setting of Church Weekday Education (CWE).
- Registration discounts (per person) will be given to all members attending regional and state level training events sponsored by the Church Weekday Education Association. Attendees of the annual NCBCWEA conferences are eligible to receive in-service training hours approved by the NC Division of Child Development.
- Directors of member centers attending the annual NCBCWEA conference will have online access to password protected conference materials.
- Registration discounts (per person) will be given to all members attending select regional and state level training events sponsored by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.
- Member centers will receive the NCBCWEA newsletter.
- Member centers will have access to a private Facebook page, in addition to the public Facebook page, in which members can interact with others participating in church weekday ministry.
- Member centers and individual members will receive a certificate of membership to display.
- Member centers (with their permission) may have their center listed on the CWE website with a link to their church and center’s website.

Types of Membership

Full Memberships
